BEACHSIDE DINING: ISLAND MARKET

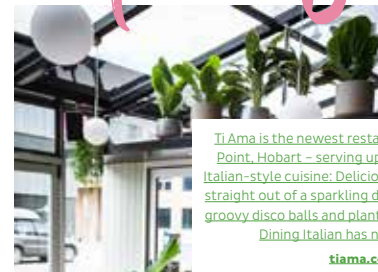

We're swooning over this breezy Perth restaurant: Island Market's delightfully offbeat space blends cosmopolitan style with a casual boathouse vibe. Its long interior is adorned with pops of pink, bold neon lights, grey tiles, and olive trees reaching for exposed, whitewashed rafters. The Mediterranean/Levantine-inspired menu is getting rave reviews, with diners relishing fresh local produce and stuffed pitas served hot from the wood-fired oven – all against a stunning ocean backdrop.

New

Ti Ama is the newest restaurant to open in Battery Point, Hobart – serving up much more than fresh, Italian-style cuisine: Delicious woodfired pizzas come straight out of a sparkling disco ball pizza oven, while groovy disco balls and plants dangle from the ceiling. Dining Italian has never been so fun.
